A Time for Silence

"And they kept silent and in those days told no one any of the things they had seen."

~ Luke 9:36

The disciples saw a lot of incredibly amazing things, including, we are told in this passage from Luke, the mysterious transfiguration of Jesus. But apparently, they kept much of what they saw to themselves until later.

What a strange notion to our culture—remaining silent. "Speak up!" "Tell it like it is!" "Let the world know how you feel!" The idea of remaining silent about something you know, or feel, is positively quaint in our social media-driven society. I should know; I offer my reflections on social media practically every day of the year.

I don't have any desire to return to the "good old days" when keeping things to oneself was an oppressive and repressive nightmare for so many. But I wonder if we have lost our ability to hear when God is saying to us, "Keep silent." A sensitivity to God's Spirit might lead us to realize that there is a time to speak and a time to remain silent.

For Jesus and the disciples, the issue of when to speak up and when to remain silent seemed to be related to what people were able to hear and to the timing of God's work in people's lives. I can't imagine that it is any different for us and the people around us. Some things we are ready to hear and some things not.

It is extremely difficult and perhaps dangerous to make judgements about what other people are ready to hear. We ought, after all, not to be in the business of controlling information. However, we are in relationships, and relationships require sensitivity, understanding, and love. Remaining silent may be the most loving option in some cases.

Perhaps in future exchanges we should more deliberately consider the option of silence.

~ Rev. Dr. Patrick Horn, Senior Minister

MESSAGE FROM THE MODERATOR

Sue Selters
Moderator

Can you believe it is February already?

The 135th Anniversary Celebration is just around the corner, and many Pilgrims are working hard on this big event. There will be historical and community displays in the gym, as well as snacks in Pilgrim Hall, a service of celebration in the sanctuary, and tours of the campus. Come and celebrate Pilgrim's history in our community. Pilgrim has been a vital part of Pomona and the surrounding area for 135 years, and we are showing off on February 27, 2022. See you there!

~ Rejoice!

RUMMAGE SALE REPORT

Our next Rummage Sale is coming up quickly, Saturday, March 19th. Until then we are collecting rummage items, just in time for you to do some spring cleaning. Please make an appointment to drop off your rummage so the custodians can help you at the garages instead of dropping off in the gym. Also, we will need help sorting as rummage comes in.

Thank You,
Janet Manildi & Judy Sanders ~ Rummage Co-Chairpersons

TRUSTEES

The annual budget was presented to the congregation at the January 23rd budget meeting. The budget was approved without any dissenting votes. I would like to thank the Trustees financial committee for their work on the 2022 budget. We appreciate the congregation's participation and inquiries regarding the budget. It is important for the entire membership to understand the budget process.

Thanks to Andrew Olson and Dr. Horn for facilitating the Zoom meeting. With Zoom participants and in person attendance we were able to have the needed quorum for this important meeting. Thank You.

DIACONATE

The Diaconate is looking forward to the rest of 2022. We will mark the 135th Anniversary of our church on February 27th, and are hoping to see as many of you as possible to celebrate with us. We are taking orders for magnetic name badges with the new church logo. When you are at church, look around to see some of the new badges on those who placed orders previously. The badges cost about $16 and you can place your order with Keith Eades or Sue Selters.

Keith Eades
Diaconate Chair

We are working with Dr. Horn to enhance the church's visitation program. If you or someone you know needs a home visit, please call the church office or Keith Eades, Chair of Diaconate (951-505-7727). If I am not able to answer your call, please leave a message with your name and telephone number, and I will return your call as soon as possible.

Please continue to pray and faithfully support your church with your presence and your talents, and may God continue to bless you!

OUTREACH

The Outreach Board at Pilgrim is pleased to be part of the inaugural event of the Community Impact Fundraiser on February 27th. Our board has chosen to support the important work of Inland Valley Hope Partners.

Marria Casner
Outreach Chair

Inland Valley Hope Partners is a faith-based, not for profit organization, established in 1968. It is supported by individuals, faith communities, businesses, community groups and foundations. Some of their support include food security programs, housing programs, a farmers' market, a gleaning hope program, rental assistance and motel vouchers among other assistance.

Pilgrim has a long tradition of serving the needs of the Pomona Valley community. Make sure to stop by our displays in the gym during the 135th Anniversary Celebration!

PILGRIM PROFILES

Because February is a month known for romance it seemed appropriate to feature a couple who will be celebrating their 65th wedding anniversary this year. Penny and Don Bentley joined Pilgrim Church in 1960, the same year Don joined the math department at Pomona College. He retired after teaching statistics for many years. Penny served as librarian at Claremont High School before she retired. They have both been active at Pilgrim for a very long time: teaching Sunday School (Tim Mingle and Susan Shedd were among their students) with Don as co-superintendent and also as co-advisors with two other couples for Pilgrim Fellowship.

Life-time Congregationalists, they both feel strongly about the subject. Don served as moderator at the National Association of Congregational Christian Churches. He also was chair of their Executive Committee and was on the board of the Congregational Foundation for Theological Studies. He was ordained at Pilgrim and served as a volunteer Associate Minister here.

Penny is a long-time member of Friendship Guild and has put in many hours working in the gym during rummage sales.

In addition to their service to Pilgrim they raised three children; son Jim and daughters Janet and Jillene, all of whom teach. Because Penny and Don are dog lovers we have to mention another family member, Chinley the pug, named after a town in England with strong ties to Congregationalism.

Special interests of theirs include genealogy and Biblical archeology, including participation at digs in Israel. Long-time residents of Claremont, they now live at Hillcrest in La Verne.

IN LOVING MEMORY

Our beloved Jeannine LeFay Delcambre (née Sanford) devoted mother, daughter, sister, and friend left the world suddenly on Saturday, January 29, 2022 at age 61.

Jeannine was born April 21, 1960 to Marjorie Crawford Sanford and the late Colonel James Edward Sanford at Keesler Air Force Base in Biloxi, MS, the third of five children. She is survived by her beloved daughters, Danielle LeFay Delcambre, formerly of Lake Placid, NY; and Annelise Jeannine Delcambre, of Vancouver, WA who are the loves of her life. She is also survived by her mother, Marjorie Sanford Gittinger of Greensboro, NC; siblings, Emily Tice of Las Vegas, NV; James "Jimmy" Sanford (Eva) of Indonesia; Christine Vanyo (Ron) of Los Angeles, CA; Jonathan Sanford (Dennis McLevish) of San Antonio, TX; former husband, Dr. Charles Delcambre (Debbie); nieces Julie McCormick (Daniel); Christine Sanford; Monica Sanford; and great nephews, Jason Sanford, Charles McCormick, Harrison McCormick, William McCormick and Keaton McCormick; her special sister/cousin Elaine Keaton Williams of New Orleans, LA as well as many, many other beloved cousins, relatives, countless friends, neighbors and companions. She is also survived by her cherished pets, Lucy Sky the gorgeous dog and JoJo the cockatiel, along with her grand dogs, Harley and Atticus.

She is preceded in death by her father Col. James Edward Sanford; stepfather, Eugene A. Gittinger; maternal grandparents, Eunice and Phillip Crawford of Bush, LA; and paternal grandmother, Grace Sanford Houston, of Covington, LA.

Growing up in a military family, Jeannine acquired a love for travel, art, music and history, as well as developing a magnificent ability to honor others. After graduating Roosevelt High School in 1978, she attended and studied music education at Hardin-Simmons University; later transferring to Texas A&M and obtaining her requirements for a degree in Physical Therapy and eventually completing her education at the University of Texas Medical Branch in Galveston, TX earning her BS in Physical Therapy, specializing in pediatrics.

She met her former husband, Charles Delcambre, in high school, but lost touch after graduation. Eventually the two reunited and married in 1982. Together they had two daughters: Danielle Delcambre and Annelise Delcambre. They have remained close friends and have an incredible bond as parents and cherished friends. Together they not only share their amazing daughters, but also a love for nature, adventure, and cooking.

After living in various locations and finishing their education, the family moved from Vancouver, WA, to Greensboro, NC where Jeannine resided for the last 18 years, creating a beautiful life for her family. At the time of her death, she had relocated to Lake Placid, New York.

Jeannine's recent move to NY was the first step to ultimately living with her daughters, becoming a grandma one day, and opening an inn with her daughter, Danielle. She dreamed of being the master gardener for the inn, and of course having all her family surrounding her. She frequently joked about building a compound where her daughters, siblings, grandchildren, and mother would all live together, happily ever after.

Being a true Taurus, Jeannine was drawn to anything beautiful, comfortable, delicious, and fun. She had a love affair with all creatures great and small, plants, animals, children, music, gardening, cooking, sewing, needlepoint, journaling, decorating, art, painting, drawing, wine, and food. She was an accomplished musician, songwriter, pianist, soloist and choral group member. She was a member of the Greensboro Choral Society, Triad Pride Chorus, and a local ukulele jam group. She spent a lifetime performing, directing, and educating others in music, whether teaching piano lessons, giving private voice lessons, or teaching young children how to make beautiful sounds. She was a long-time member of the Unity in Greensboro, her spiritual community, where she held many deep and loving friendships, led musical programs for both events and services, and was the colorful lady dancing at all times.

As a master in meditation, Jeannine believed that the closest you could be to God was drinking coffee while gardening in her pajamas and enjoying her very popular bird feeders that catered to finches, chipmunks, squirrels, chickadees, hummingbirds, butterflies, and her favorite, cardinals. She was a member of the National Audubon Society and loved every living thing, even the creepy crawlies.

Jeannine loved spending time in the kitchen creating delicious meals for her family and organizing elaborate celebrations for her friends and neighbors which earned her the reputation of an extraordinary entertainer, cook, and decorator. She filled her home with beauty, artwork, exquisite décor, and music. She became synonymous with her famous and annual Winter Solstice Party which brought together people to enjoy nature, music, food, and gin & tonics.

IN LOVING MEMORY

Besides her daughters, Jeannine's deepest passion in life was healing the sick and hurting. Her career spanning over 40 years primarily involved treating children with severe disabilities, autism, birth defects, or devastating physical impairments. She was beyond gifted in being able to find ways to comfort, uplift, and develop those in Early Intervention (0y-5y), all the way up to those in memory care. She had a magical gift of being able to touch and heal those that seemed incurable.

Jeannine was a regular blood donor to the American Red Cross, strongly supporting them after Danielle's traumatic birth and transfusion 33 years ago. Being nothing but extraordinary, she consistently donated double reds, and was designated as a "Hero for Babies" by the Red Cross for being CMV-negative. She was also an avid supporter of animal and women's rights, and an active member of the Association of Happiness for All Mankind (AHAM) in Asheboro, NC. She was a fierce social justice advocate, participating in the Women's March on Washington, many Pride parades, March for Science (DC), Global Climate March, and many marches benefiting those with disabilities and diseases.

Jeannine LeFay Delcambre

Sister of Christine Vanyo and Aunt of Julie McCormick

The simplest pleasures in life brought great joy to Jeannine. She often explored local hiking trails, enjoying nature and spending time with her family on lakeside camping trips. She loved the mountains and the sea, boating, canoeing, swimming, and chasing waterfalls. Some of her happiest moments were spent floating in any body of water, regardless of size. Her daughters laugh now at her impulsive hot tub purchase so she could float at her new home. She was an expert water and snow skier, and spent every opportunity she could visiting the Cascades, Rockies, Blue Ridge, and Appalachian Mountains being close to her mother nature. The family enjoyed travel vacations to Hawaii, Europe, Tahiti, Mexico, Dominican Republic, Canada, and multiple road trips around the country with her daughters. While she had impeccable taste, she truly valued the simple pleasures of life over worldly objects. These world experiences gave Jeannine the ability to care for and love people of all walks of life.

She was often described by her daughters as a "sparkle fairy princess ballerina" and they loved to joke at her "shiny objects syndrome" for even the smallest glitter seen in a pebble. Her sparkling green eyes and joyful spirit were contagious to everyone she met, and she blessed all who crossed her path. Over her lifetime, she dedicated countless hours to charity work, volunteering, caring for those less fortunate and assisting children and the elderly. Her contributions to this world are untold as she is remembered as a devoted mother, engaging performer, a seeker of peace, and lover of nature.

The beautiful, dynamic, bright, illuminated, glowing light of our precious Jeannine will be deeply missed and mourned by all.

The family has postponed services until we can gather safely. At this time of mourning, we feel we cannot truly celebrate her legacy as she wished. She would not want us to be sad but would say "the purpose of life is to play, the universe loves you, everything is for your highest good, and everything happens for a reason." Information will follow at later time. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Autism Speaks or the American Red Cross in memory of Jeannine L. Delcambre.

Jeannine consistently recited the following prayer, and we now turn to it for comfort.

The Prayer for Protection

by James Dillet Freeman

The Light of God Surrounds You
The Love of God Enfolds You
The Power of God Protects You
And The Presence of God Watches Over You.
Wherever I am, God is, and ALL IS WELL.

Liturgical Notes by Dr. Horn: White symbolizes purity, innocence, and birth. It is associated with the brightness of the heavens during daytime and thus it was used to symbolize the purity of heaven and the angels. It also came to be associated with joy, celebration, and peace. White is the liturgical color of Christmas, Epiphany, and Easter.

Green symbolizes growth and life, hope and anticipation. Green is used in Ordinary time, the period of the Church calendar which gives attention to the Lord's life and ministry; it reminds us that the mission of the Church is to love the world and share the hope of Christ.

Boutonnieres for February 2022 are generously provided by Don & Judy Sanders ~ In appreciation for the opportunity to worship the Lord in Pilgrim Church with Pilgrims.
