MESSAGE FROM THE MINISTER

Life is Strange

*“whenever a serpent bit someone, that person would look at the serpent of bronze and live.”
Numbers 21:7*

When I was a child, our family had one of those large family Bibles containing paintings that dramatically portrayed scenes from the text. One of the most striking and unforgettable pictures was of the story of the bronze serpent from the book of Numbers. I will never forget the spectacular image of snakes wrapped around writhing bodies whose faces were lifted to a bronze serpent on a pole in their midst. It was a very strange picture of one of the strangest stories in the Bible.

The story starts innocently enough. The ancient Hebrews in the wilderness are tired, thirsty, hungry, and angry because Moses is intentionally leading them on a circuitous route to avoid confrontation with the Edomites. They bitterly complain and the text says that the Lord sends poisonous snakes to attack them in response to their grievances. The people quickly repent, and the Lord tells Moses to make a bronze serpent on a pole, set it in their midst, and whoever looks up at the bronze serpent will be saved.

A Bronze Serpent Saves the Israelites

Preachers and poets try to find strong, pithy statements that will convey grand and universal messages. And there are some great ones. Wallace Stevens wrote, “Death is the mother of beauty.” And Marianne Moore penned, “Hope is not hope until all ground for hope has vanished.” Czech poet Miroslav Holub wrote, “You only love when you love in vain.” The problem is that these grand statements are cold and meaningless in the abstract. They require the tough and gritty context of life to hold the breadth and depth of their meaning.

Stories like the one of the bronze serpent help us to value the gritty strangeness of life, an appreciation needed in order to grasp what is grand and universal about life. Similarly, we cannot adequately grasp the wonder and magnitude of the resurrection without valuing the suffering and despair of the cross. As Easter approaches, in this time of Lent, embrace the strangeness of life.

~Rev. Dr. Patrick Horn

LIBRARY NEWS

Because the newsletter deadline was well before our library coffee on February 25th, that story will have to wait for next month. The library committee worked hard to make it a success.

The library has new books by popular authors James Patterson (Holmes, Marple & Poe) and Alexander McCall Smith (From a Far & Lovely Country.) We also have the third delightful mystery in the Her Majesty the Queen Investigates series by S.J. Bennett, Murder Most Royal.

Fans of Dolly Parton (and who isn't?) would enjoy browsing over Behind the Seams which describes her costumes and sets.

Be sure to stop by the library and see what other interesting new books we have! ~Megan

THANK YOU NANCY

It is with great honor and some sadness that we celebrated the retirement of Pilgrim's Bookkeeper, Nancy Newell. Nancy served from 2015 to 2024. She has been a loved staff member helping everyone far beyond her Bookkeeper title. We celebrated on January 28th at a special reception during Fellowship Hour where many thanks and lovely sentiments were shared. Nancy is definitely missed in the office but we all look forward to fellowship with her as she will always be a member of our Pilgrim family.

*We love you Nancy and remember what Mr. Fred Rogers said,
"Often when you think you're at the end of something, you're at the beginning of something else."*

Top left: Janet McBride (Nancy's sister), Nancy Newell, & Janet Manildi.
Bottom left: Betsy Bowering expresses the love and appreciation we all feel.

PILGRIM PROFILE

Leila Alcalá

Pilgrim Church has been fortunate to find a successor to bookkeeper Nancy Newell who retired January 31st. Leila Alcalá took early retirement from working 22 years at a school district in the accounting department. She was looking for a part-time position and always wanted to work at a church. She added: "I love accounting. I wanted to work in a friendly and welcoming environment. I have enjoyed getting to know each member of the staff."

She loves to bake and has taken baking and culinary classes at Mt. Sac. Recently Leila became a volunteer at the Pomona Animal Shelter, because she loves fur-babies. Other interests include traveling and going to the movies. Her husband Juan has started showing her self-defense moves; he has a brown belt in Jiu Jitsu. They have been married for 14 years and he is her best friend. She has one brother and five sisters, and they grew up in La Puente. She has lots of nieces and nephews. Her family also includes three dogs and three cats. Her mom lives with them and takes care of the fur-babies when Leila is working or at school.

She said: "I am very lucky to go to work where worship, faith, prayer, and Christ's love is honored. The staff and the members of Pilgrim Church are warm and welcoming! I am very honored to be part of the Pilgrim staff."

Next time you come by the office or call be sure to say hello to Leila and thank her for joining us!

WELCOME NEW STAFF

Please welcome the two new members of Pilgrim's Custodial Staff Team; Christian Campbell and Daphne Sanders. Do you recognize them? Well that is not surprising as both have grown up here at Pilgrim. They have already made an impression at Pilgrim as hard workers long before being hired and have been a joy to work with since then. Daphne is the grand daughter of Don and Judy Sanders and on top of her duties here at Pilgrim she also volunteers her time helping with the rummage sale including sorting each week and running her own department. Christian is the grandson of Deborah and Carl Walden and oldest child of Sarah & DJ Campbell. He was very active in the Pilgrim Youth Program growing up and also helped with the rummage sale. When you see them please be sure to tell them how much we appreciate their hard work as well as that of the entire custodial team.

Liturgical Notes by Rev. Dr. Patrick Horn:

Purple was originally associated with royalty because it was a more expensive color to dye, and it was used to welcome the coming of a king. It also evokes pain and suffering. Purple symbolizes fasting, faith, patience, and trust. It is the liturgical color used during the seasons of penance, Advent, and Lent. For Advent, purple symbolizes the impending birth of Jesus while foreshadowing his death.

White symbolizes purity, innocence, and birth. It is associated with the brightness of the heavens during daytime and was used to symbolize the purity of heaven and the angels. It also came to be associated with joy, celebration, and peace. White is the liturgical color of Christmas, Epiphany & Easter.
