MESSAGE FROM THE SENIOR MINISTER

The Writing on Your Heart

"I the Lord test the mind and search the heart, to give to all according to their ways, according to the fruit of their doings." ~ Jeremiah 17:10

The prophet Jeremiah talks about the writing on our hearts. He says earlier in chapter 17 that the sins of Judah are written on their hearts and with a diamond-tipped iron pen. And then, more famously, later in chapter 31, Jeremiah says that God will write God's law on the hearts of the people. The one thing that is clear in Jeremiah is that all people have something written on their hearts.

Verse 10 of chapter 17, quoted above, makes it clear that God judges us according to what is written on our hearts. And what is written is determined by our ways and the fruit of our lives.

Even if God is fundamentally merciful and loving, God is also just and righteous. The idea of an eternal hell with eternal punishment does not make much sense, but our separation from God through our own poor ways of living is hell enough.

One question rises above all others in these texts from Jeremiah: What are we writing on our hearts? The world and our communities are filled with extremely challenging obstacles. We may or may not be able to surmount all that we face.

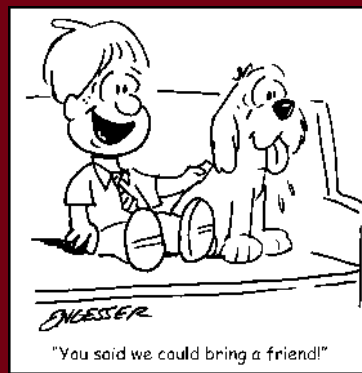

And yet, all these obstacles are also opportunities for us to enjoy the blessings of life, to have God's law of love and righteousness written on our hearts, to be able to give while expecting nothing in return. Suffering and death in our midst hold the promise of resurrection and new life, if we will only respond with lives of faithful, genuine compassion.

Pilgrim Congregational Church is a spiritual home that helps all of us to write God's will on our hearts. Jeremiah often issues harsh judgements of his people when sins are written on their hearts. But perhaps it would be harsher to refrain from such proclamations since nothing is worse than separation from God and nothing is better than doing God's will.

Rev. Dr. Patrick Horn ~ Sr. Minister, Pilgrim Congregational Church

HOLY HILARITY

MESSAGE FROM THE MODERATOR

from the Moderator

The early part of a new year is a busy time for many of us and for the church under any circumstances. And this year holds additional challenges for us. Every year the Trustees work with Boards and Committees that receive funds through the church's budgeting process and consider the pledges made by church members and friends, and the prospects for the economy and our investments to propose a church budget for the year. Professor William Hasselbrink was my economics teacher in college. He used to begin the course by saying, "Economics is called the dismal science, but it is not properly a science. It is, however, quite dismal." He would go on to explain that economics is about scarcity. There is not as much of anything as everyone might want. Families, nations, and churches must reflect on how much is available, and how to best use it. The professor was something of a character on our little campus, but I had a lot of respect for him. He encouraged us to go out of our comfort zones in doing our research and writing for our Senior Seminar, which was a capstone project for the Bachelor's degree programs. After my graduation, I learned that he had gone on to earn a second doctorate in Religion.

For a number of years the annual budget process has forced us as a church to confront the fact that we can not continue to operate the church at the level we are accustomed to on the basis of our pledges alone. The trustees have worked out ways to borrow from funds that were donated as endowments for the time being, but no one wants to continue outspending our giving indefinitely. Every year we are challenged to prayerfully consider our pledge and increase our giving if possible. At our town hall meeting on January 5th, we were told that 2024's giving actually exceeded what was pledged, and our pledges for 2025 represented an increase over the previous year. Both of these statements are encouraging, but there is something else that must be considered.

We need to prayerfully consider and work to help the church to grow in the number of people we touch, and who covenant with us to worship and work together. I have not missed the fact that the church has added members in recent years, both from new adults visiting and eventually joining our fellowship and from young adults completing their confirmations. I have been encouraged that these new members have been active, serving on boards and committees in the church and investing their time and talents in the ministry of the church. My point is that we need to be more deliberate in prayerfully seeking ways to reach out to new families. One person will not be able to make the church grow alone. One board or committee will not be able to do it. It will take all of us praying and working together. If we are continually looking for God's plan and acting in faith to join in, God will provide the increase.

Prayerfully,
Keith Eades ~ Moderator

FROM THE LIBRARIAN

It's almost here, our annual Library Coffee on Sunday, February 16th at 12:30pm! The Library Committee is excited to present Constance Cassinelli from Claremont. Her story is an interesting tale of how she used her great grandfather's letters to reconstruct her family's history in Italy. Her second book which she is working on now, is about their lives in America. We have a copy of Caro Nicola in the library if you would like to get a head start on the subject. Because it is meeting Sunday, we will start with refreshments at 12:30pm to allow folks to hold their meetings and our speaker will begin at 1pm. The committee prides itself on our delicious refreshments so be sure to come and invite your friends and neighbors to join us. This is a free event open to the public.

The next Library Committee meeting will be Wednesday, February 26th at 9:30am.

Come by the Pilgrim Library and check us out.

SHROVE TUESDAY

Join us for some silly fun as we celebrate Shrove Tuesday with a Pancake Dinner & Pancake Races Tuesday, March 4th, 2025

6:45pm ~ Pancake Dinner
7:30pm ~ Pancake Races

What is Shrove Tuesday?

Shrove Tuesday is the Eve before Ash Wednesday. Though named for its former religious significance, it is marked by the feasting & celebration, which precedes the observance of the Lenten fast.

What are the Pancake Races?

Pancakes are eaten on Shrove Tuesday as a way to use up ingredients that will perish during the fasting season of Lent. Typically, there are more pancakes than can be eaten so why not have a little fun? Pancake Races originated in the town of Olney in Buckinghamshire, England in 1445 and are still done every Shrove Tuesday in the United Kingdom, Canada, Ireland, New Zealand & Australia.

Pilgrim has been participating in the Pancake Races for 4 years now and we want to invite the entire congregation and friends to join in the fun. We snack on small pancakes with toppings of choice and participate in pancake flipping contests and relays.

Whether you want to play or just watch while enjoying a pancake or two or more, there is fun for everyone from 1 to 101. So bring your apron & frying pan and join in the fun.

“If you do it right, you won’t want to see another pancake until after Easter anyway”

THANK YOU FROM THE PILGRIM YOUTH

The high school & college youth attended a Fall Retreat in November at Cedar Lake Camp. The theme was "Fruit of the Spirit." They had fun learning how to apply the "Fruit of the Spirit" in their lives through interactive art sessions and other activities including making 100 Blessing Bags for the Homeless.

Pictured from the left, Asante (Praise Music Leader), D.J. (Retreat Chef), Christian, Nathaniel, & Stephen (back row), Sam, Damyria, Bella, Kodie & Mitchell. Front Row: Heather (Retreat Speaker & Art Leader) & Armondo. Retreat Director, Sarah is taking the picture.

Thank you Pilgrim Church for supporting our youth so they can have experiences like this.

OUR PILGRIM FAMILY

Welcome to the Big League!

Congratulations to Charlie McCormick

for making the AAA Little League team. Charlie has played baseball since age 4, beginning in Tee Ball, moving to Single A and Minor League. In typical “Charlie” style, he decided bypass the AA Team try-outs and go straight for the AAA try-outs, and he made the team!

The coaches commented on his excellent fielding and hitting skills. The AAA manager says Charlie has done an exceptional job working on his form and expects great things this coming Season.

Wishing you JOY in 2025!

Love,
Roberta Fisher

Hats off to a job well done!!!
