What is the Serpent?

“Now the serpent was more crafty than any other wild animal that the LORD God had made.”

Genesis 3:1

By: Rev. Dr. Patrick Horn

When I was a freshman in college, I had the extraordinary privilege of taking Old Testament courses with Dr. Karen Joines. He is the only man I have ever known with the name, “Karen.” But more importantly, he was an amazing scholar, archaeologist, and theologian, from whom I learned more about the biblical text than any other professor I ever had the pleasure of studying with.

Dr. Joines was an expert on many Old Testament issues, but his first published book was on the symbolism of the serpent. The serpent is used as a symbol in several passages, the most well-known, of course, found in the story of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden. Dr. Joines wrote that the serpent in the garden was not the same character in the book of Job referred to as Satan (the accuser) but was rather patterned after stories from Mesopotamian culture, “a strange combination of life, wisdom, and chaos.”

Oversimplifying from a distance of 3 or 4 thousand years, the serpent in the Garden of Eden seems to express the human desire to be like God. We are tempted to think that if we only had all of the knowledge, we might be equal with God, or at least, able to succeed at life. When we succumb to this temptation, innocence is lost and chaos ensues.

This passage from Genesis 3 is part of the lectionary reading for the first Sunday in Lent. Thus Lent begins in the messiness of our lives, in the temptation to think that we only need the right knowledge to be whole and in the reality that we have already lost our innocence.

Thus we begin the Lent season acknowledging our lost innocence and our need for God. The story of the serpent in the Garden reminds us that we have already tried and failed without God. Let us prepare our hearts for the One who redeems us and makes us whole.

Framing Matters

I have some beautiful paintings that rest under my bed because I've not yet taken the time to frame them. A poor framing dulls a picture; whereas, a good framing allows the colors to pop. Even more, good framing can draw a room together, creating a delightful cohesion.

The framing we put on our decisions, our work, and what occurs around us also matters. When you frame things poorly, it dulls the truth and washes away the good work of God in you. When you take the time to frame things well, to do so prayerfully and with the knowledge that God is working for your good, then you see colors you've not seen before. You are strengthened to hold fast to truth and to see your work as a larger work of God.

Framing matters.

Stop and consider...is there something that has been creating a soul ache inside of you? Maybe it is something someone said or a very present struggle. It is likely something that intrudes upon your daily thoughts.

Bring that to mind. Breathe. Ask God in. Journal if that is your way. Stay in prayer until God provides you a frame for the struggle. You'll know it is God because it will be a frame that rejects judgment in favor of love; resists contraction and invites expansion; and helps you see your part in God's work this day. You'll be able to say with Joseph, the dreamer who wore a colorful coat, that whatever others meant for ill, God will use for good.

When we can frame our work as part of God's purpose for us, then we find cohesion in our work together as Christ's community. Cohesion attracts more people to our campus. As people look upon us, the colors of our various ministries pop and bring a delight that keeps people coming. Until, one day, a guest sees their place, and adds the color of their ministry to greater church that is our Lord's work among us.

May our framing lead us to be what Paul pleaded for in 1 Corinthians 1:10

Now I appeal to you, brothers and sisters, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you be in agreement and that there be no divisions among you but that you be knit together in the same mind and the same purpose.

Reverend Heather Miner

RISE UP and TAKE HEART

"Be strong and take heart, all you who hope in the Lord."
Psalm 31:24

February's a busy month—we've got Valentine's Day, Groundhog Day, the Super Bowl, and then we're gearing up for Lent. All these traditions get us moving and involved. For February, I'm going with the theme "Rise Up and Take Heart." It's about more than just thinking good thoughts—it's about actually doing something, and making sure everything we do is centered in Christ's love.

Love isn't just candy, hearts, and cupids (or cheering for our team.) It's what our faith is built on. Love is what brings us together, inspires us to worship, and motivates us to serve. When we're grounded in love, our actions show compassion, patience, and grace. At Pilgrim Congregational Church, we're not just supposed to talk about love—we're called to live it, both with each other and out in the Pomona community.

February is a great time to think about how we treat each other and how we work together. It's a chance to build stronger relationships, forgive, and be kind—even when it's tough. "Taking heart" means showing up, helping out, and being ready to serve wherever God leads us.

I really appreciate everyone who gives their time and talents, whether it's up front or behind the scenes. Your efforts—big and small—show what it means to be rooted in love. Every kind gesture, every prayer, every bit of service makes our church stronger.

Looking ahead, let's keep caring for each other and responding to needs as they come up. Let's look for ways to serve, welcome new people, and deepen our faith through worship, prayer, and spending time together. When we act out of love, we show Christ to the world and bring hope to those around us.

As Moderator, I'm grateful for the dedication and compassion in our church family. My hope is that February will be a month where our faith isn't just something we talk about, but something people can really see in the way we live. Let's keep rooting ourselves in Christ's love and walk this journey together.

Audio Visual Message

Dear Pilgrim,

By now, you've likely seen our A/V questionnaire floating around. We want to make sure everyone - from the back row to the front - is heard loud and clear! Please drop your completed survey in the collection box at Coffee Hour by Sunday, February 15th.

What's happening behind the scenes? Since December, our committee has been meeting monthly to build a roadmap for our campus-wide tech upgrades. Here is where we are:

- Step 1: Listening to You. Your survey answers are the foundation. We'll be reviewing everything right after the Feb 15th deadline.
- Step 2: Walking the Grounds. We're matching your feedback with expert advice to see exactly what each room needs.
- Step 3: Planning the Budget. We'll share clear recommendations so the Congregation can see how their generosity will be used.
- Step 4: Launching the Vision. We'll kick off our official fundraising campaign in Spring 2026!

This is an exciting opportunity to strengthen our worship experience and community engagement. We know that together we can build an A/V system that serves our congregation, enhances rental spaces, special events and helps extend our ministry beyond the walls of our campus.

Thank you,

FEBRUARY 2026 LIBRARY NEWS

The annual library coffee returns on a Sunday, February 1, 2026, at noon with our own Joe Blackstock, author of From Haven to Hell, all about Inland Valley history. As usual there will be gourmet refreshments before he speaks. We plan to offer copies of his book for sale. This is a free event open to the public so invite your friends and neighbors to join us.

Stories of the Inland Empire

A NEW BOOK BY JOE BLACKSTOCK

"Haven to Hell" features:

Did you know the state of California owns Hell? Yep, it purchased Hell, Calif. for $75,000 in 1964 so it wouldn't have to build a bridge to such a notorious place.

George Haven – Rancho Cucamonga's main street is named for him – was one of the luckiest miners of the Gold Rush. Everything he touched became golden.

The Earp family came by wagon train to San Bernardino in 1864. Ironically, the Earps later had to travel east in order to become legends in the Old West.

Chester Carlson invented the first photocopier and created Xerox. But his early years were tough -- he once lived in a converted San Bernardino chicken coop.

The book's available at <https://is.gd/UbO8s0>

The Library Committee wishes to honor Cynthia Shoultz, one of our top readers every year, who passed away on Christmas Eve. We are dedicating this year's Library Coffee to her.

The Library Committee met in late January to select new books. Be sure to stop by the library and see what's new!
